PIE CRUST CHEAT SHEET

PAR BAKE VS BLIND BAKE VS HALF BLIND

One question: is your filling going in the oven?

BLIND BAKE

a.k.a. full blind bake

WEIGHTS
Yes, parchment + beans to the rim

HOW
375°F, 15–20 min with weights, then 10–15 min without

CRUST WHEN YOU FILL
Golden, fully done. Cool it first

USE FOR
Cream pie, lemon curd, ganache, fresh fruit tart

HALF BLIND

a.k.a. partial blind bake

WEIGHTS
Yes, parchment + beans to the rim

HOW
375°F, 15 min with weights, then 5 min without

CRUST WHEN YOU FILL
Set and dry, still pale

USE FOR
Quiche, pumpkin, custard, pecan

PAR BAKE

how we do it at the bakery

WEIGHTS
None

HOW
375°F, 10 min empty, then fill and bake

CRUST WHEN YOU FILL
Just set, bottom sealed

USE FOR
Apple, blueberry, juicy fruit pies

YOUR FILLING	DO THIS
Never baked (cream, curd, ganache)	Blind bake
Wet + baked (quiche, pumpkin, custard)	Half blind
Juicy fruit (apple, blueberry)	Par bake 10 min

Chill before it goes in · Dock the bottom · Weights to the rim · Cool before a cold filling

THE CRUST WE USE AT THE BAKERY

PIE & QUICHE CRUST

YIELD
One 9″ crust

PAR BAKE
10 min, no weights

OVEN
375°F

INGREDIENT	WEIGHT
Oat flour (GF)	80 g
Rice flour	27 g
Potato starch	27 g
Tapioca flour	18 g
Brown sugar	15 g
Xanthan gum	1 g (¼ tsp)
Salt	1.5 g
Cold vegan butter, chunks	57 g
Ice cold water	53 g

1. Whisk all the dry ingredients and the brown sugar.
2. Rub in the cold butter until the biggest pieces are pea size.
3. Add the ice cold water, mix just until it comes together.
4. Flatten, wrap, chill at least 30 min.
5. Roll between parchment, lay it in a 9″ pie dish.
6. Bake empty at 375°F for 10 min. No weights.
7. Fill and bake as your recipe says.

> No-bake filling? Give it about 15 min until golden, cool it completely, then fill.
